La Follette Not for Taft. That Senator La Follette will turn his strength to the President in preference to Secretary Taft, after he has had the benefit of a complimentary vote, seems assured. Utah is another State that is ready to turn to the President, but has Attorney General Breathitt, of Kentucky, hesitated to fall into line for Taft.

One of the most active second-elective Gregor and Charles H. Morris, their brief term boosters is Cecil Lyon, of Texas. He declines to line up for Taft, but has College vs. The Commonweath of Kennot forfelted the respect of the President by his reluctance, for on his recent visit was not responsible for Mr. Lyon's views, and could not control him, and was not years ago, prohibiting whites and negroes disposed to quarrel with the Texan over from attending the same school.

It is the keen relish which certain close friends of the President show over the second-elective term movement that worries the Taft men.
